

BY-LAWS

OF

SHERWOOD CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION

The name of the organization shall be Sherwood Condominium Association.

ARTICLE I

OBJECT

(Plan of Ownership)

1. The purpose for which this non-profit Association is formed is to govern the condominium property which has been or will be submitted to the provisions of the Condominium Ownership Act of the State of Colorado by the recording of the Declaration and Supplements thereto and Maps and Supplements thereto bearing the name associated with this Association.
2. All present or future owners, tenants, future tenants, or any other person that might use in any manner the facilities of the project located on the property therein described are subject to the regulations set forth in these By-Laws. The more acquisitive or rental of any of the condominium units (hereinafter referred to as "units") or the mere act of occupancy of any of said unit will signify that these By-Laws are accepted, ratified and will be complied with.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP, VOTING, MAJORITY OF OWNERS, QUORUM, PROXIES

1. Membership. Except as is otherwise provided in these By-Laws, ownership of a condominium unit is required in order to qualify for membership in this Association. Any person on becoming an owner of a condominium unit shall automatically become a member of this Association and be subject to these By-Laws. Such membership shall terminate without any formal Association action whenever such person ceases to own a condominium unit, but such termination shall not relieve or release any such former owner from any liability or obligation incurred under or in any way connected with this Association during the period of such ownership and membership in the Association, or impair any rights or remedies which the unit owners have, either through the Board of Managers of the Association or directly, against such former owner and member arising out of or in any way connected with ownership and membership and the covenants and obligations incident thereto.
2. Voting. Voting shall be based upon the percentage of the undivided interest owned by each unit owner in all of the general common elements. Upon the submission of additional condominium units to this condominium project, each condominium unit owner shall be entitled to cast votes equal to the percentage interest assigned to the type of unit owned by him as is set forth in paragraph 34(d) of the Declaration, and the aggregate of all of the percentage interests then making up the enlarged condominium project shall be considered one hundred percent for voting purposes. Cumulative voting is prohibited.
3. Majority of Unit Owners. As used in these By-Laws the term "majority of unit owners" shall mean those owners or more than fifty percent (50%) of the undivided ownership of the general common elements.

4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws, the presence in person or by proxy of those owners present shall constitute a quorum. An affirmative vote of a majority of the unit owners present, either in person or by proxy, shall be required to transact the business of the meeting.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION

1. Association Responsibilities. The owners of the units will constitute the Association of Unit Owners, hereinafter referred to as "Association", who will have the responsibility of administering the project through a Board of Managers.

2. Place of Meeting. Meetings of the Association shall be held at such place within the State of Colorado as the Board of Managers may determine.

3. Annual Meetings. The first meeting of the Association members shall be held 120 days following the giving of Notice by the Declarant that all of the Condominium units have been sold, reference being made to Paragraph 35 (b) of the Declaration. Thereafter, the annual meetings of the Association shall be held during the month of July of each succeeding year. At such meetings there shall be elected by ballot of the owners a Board of Managers in accordance with the requirements of Section 5 of Article IV of these By-Laws. The owners may also transact such other business of the Association as may properly come before them. 'Declarant' as used in these By-Laws refers to the Declarant named in the Condominium Declaration For Sherwood Condominiums; or his heirs, representatives, executors and assigns.

4. Special Meetings. The President may call a special meeting of the owners upon his own initiative or as directed by resolution of the Board of Managers or upon receipt of a petition signed by at least one-third of the owners. The notice of any special meeting shall state the time and place of such meeting and the purpose thereof. No business except as stated in the notice shall be transacted. at a special meeting unless by consent of two-thirds of the owners present, either in person or by proxy. Any such meetings shall be held at such place and time as the President determines within thirty (30) days after receipt by the President of such resolution or petition.

5. Notice of Meetings. The President or Secretary shall mail or deliver a notice of each annual or special meeting, stating the purpose thereof as well as the time and place it is to be held, to each owner of record, at the registered address of each owner, at least five (5), but not more than thirty (30) days prior to such meeting. The mailing of a notice in the manner provided in this paragraph or the delivery of such notice shall be considered notice served, and the Certificate of the President or Secretary that notice was duly given shall be prima facie evidence thereof.

6. Adjourned Meetings. If any meeting of owners cannot be organized because a quorum has not attended, the owners who are present, either in person or by proxy, may adjourn the meeting, to a time not less than forty-eight hours from the time the original meeting was called.

7. Order of Business. The order of business at all meetings of the owners of units shall be as follows:

- (a) Roll call and certifying proxies
- (b) Proof of notice of meeting or waiver of notice
- (c) Reading of Minutes of preceding Minutes
- (d) Reports of officers
- (e) Reports of committees
- (f) Election of managers
- (g) Unfinished business
- (h) New business
- (i) Adjournment

8. Performance of Functions by Declarant. The rights, duties and functions of the Board of Managers shall, at the Declarant's option, be exercised by the Declarant by and through those persons named as Managers in the Articles of Incorporation, until 120 days after the last of all of the Condominium units have been sold, and the provisions of paragraph ~~25~~³²(b) of the Declaration are incorporated herein by this reference and made a part hereof as is fully set forth herein.

ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF MANAGERS

1. Number and Qualification. Consistent with the provisions of ~~Paragraph 25(b)~~³² of the Declaration, the Declarant shall exercise the rights, duties and functions of the Board of Managers as provided therein by and through the persons named in the Articles of Incorporation as the Managers until the first meeting of the Members of the Association. At the first meeting there shall be elected any five members of the Association to the Board of Managers who shall thereafter govern the affairs of this Association until their successors have been duly elected and qualified.

2. Powers and Duties. The Board of Managers shall have the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Association and for the operation and maintenance of the condominium project as a first class residential condominium property.

3. Other Powers and Duties. Such powers and duties of the Board of Managers shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following, all of which shall be done for and in behalf of the owners of the condominium units:

(a) To administer and enforce the covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements, uses, limitations, obligations and all other provisions set forth in the Condominium Declaration submitting the property to the provisions of the Condominium Ownership Act of the State of Colorado, the By-Laws of the Association and supplements and amendments thereto.

(b) To establish, make and enforce compliance with such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the operation, rentals, use and occupancy of all of the condominium units with the right to amend same from time to time. A copy of such rules and regulations shall be delivered or mailed to each member upon the adoption thereof.

(c) To incur such costs and expenses as may be necessary to keep in good order, condition and repair of all of the general and limited common elements and all items of common personal property.

(d) To insure and keep insured all of the insurable general common elements of the property in an amount equal to the maximum replacement value. To insure and keep insured all of the common fixtures, equipment and personal property for the benefit of the owners of the condominium units and their first mortgagees. Further, to obtain and maintain comprehensive liability insurance covering the entire premises in amounts not less than $100,000.00 per person and $300,000.00 per accident and $50,000.00 property damages. Further, the provisions of paragraph 23 of the Declaration are by this reference made a part hereof as if fully set forth herein.

(e) To prepare a budget for the condominium, at least annually, in order to determine the amount of the common assessments payable by the unit owners to meet the common expenses of the condominium project, and allocate and assess such common charges among the unit owners according to their respective common ownership interests in and to the general common elements, and by majority vote of the Board to adjust, decrease or increase the amount of the quarterly or monthly assessments, and remit or return any excess of assessments over expenses, working capital, sinking funds, reserve for deferred maintenance and for replacement to the owners at the end of each operating year. To levy and collect special assessments whenever in the opinion of the Board it is necessary to do so in order to meet increased operating or maintenance expenses or costs, or additional capital expenses, or because of emergencies.

(f) To collect delinquent assessments by suit or otherwise and to enjoin or seek damages from an owner as is provided in the Declaration and these By-Laws. To enforce a late charge of not more than $10.00 per month and to collect interest at the rate of twelve (12%) percent per annum in connection with assessments remaining unpaid more than ten (10%) days from due date for payment thereof, together with all expenses, including attorney's fees incurred. The Board of Managers shall have the duty, right, power and authority to prohibit use of the condominium unit by the owner thereof, his guests, tenants, lessees and invitees in the event that any assessment made remains unpaid more than thirty (30) days from the due date for payment thereof.

(g) To protect and defend in the name of the Association any part or all of the condominium project from loss and damage by suit or otherwise.

(h) To borrow funds in order to pay for any expenditure or outlay required pursuant to the authority granted by the provisions of the recorded Declaration and these By-Laws, and to execute all such instruments evidencing such indebtedness as the Board of Managers may deem necessary and give security therefor. Such indebtedness shall be the several obligation of all of the owners in the same proportion as their interest in the general common elements. The persons who shall be authorized to execute promissory notes and securing instruments shall be the President and Secretary or Assistant Secretary.

(i) To enter into contracts to carry out their duties and powers.

(j) To establish a bank account or accounts for the common treasury and for all separate funds which are required or may be deemed advisable.

(k) To make repairs, additions, alterations and improvements to the general common elements consistent with managing the condominium project in a first-class manner and consistent with the best interests of the unit owners.

(l) To keep and maintain full and accurate books and records showing all of the receipts, expenses, or disbursements and to permit examination thereof at any reasonable time by each of the owners, and to cause a complete audit of the books and accounts by a certified or public accountant, once each year.

(m) To prepare and deliver annually to each owner a statement showing receipts, expenses or disbursements since the last such statement.

(n) To meet at least once each quarter.

(o) To designate the personnel necessary for the maintenance and operation of the general and limited common elements.

(p) In general, to carry on the administration of this Association and to do all of those things necessary and reasonable in order to carry out the governing and the operation of this condominium property.

(q) To control and manage the use of all parking areas.

(r) To employ for the Association a management agent who shall have and exercise those powers granted by the Board of Managers but not those powers set forth in Paragraph 28 of the Condominium Declaration.

4. No Waiver of Rights. The omission or failure of the Association or any condominium unit owner to enforce the covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements, uses, limitations, obligations or other provision of the Condominium Declaration, the By-Laws, or the house rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, shall not constitute or be deemed a waiver, modification or release thereof, and the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent shall have the right to enforce the same thereafter.

5. Election and Term of Office. At the first meeting of the Association the term of office of two Managers shall be fixed for three (3) years; the term of office of two Managers shall be fixed for two (2) years; and the term of office of one Manager shall be fixed at one (1) year. At the expiration of the initial term of office of each respective Manager, his successor shall be elected to serve a term of three (3) years. Except as is otherwise provided in these By-Laws, the Managers shall hold office until their successors have been elected and hold their first meeting.

6. Vacancies. Vacancies in the Board of Managers caused by any reason other than the removal of a Manager by a vote of the Association shall be filled by vote of the majority of the remaining Managers, even though they may constitute less than a quorum; and each person so elected shall be a Manager until his successor is elected.

7. Removal of Managers. At any regular or special meeting duly called, any one or more of the Managers may be removed with or without cause by a majority of the owners, and a successor may then and there be elected to fill the vacancy thus created. Any Manager whose removal has been proposed by the owners shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting.

8. Organizational Meeting. The first meeting of a newly elected Board of Managers following the annual meeting of the unit owners shall be held within ten days thereafter at such place as shall be fixed by the Managers at the meeting at which such Managers were elected, and no notice shall be necessary to the newly elected Managers in order legally to constitute such meeting, providing a majority of the whole Board shall be present.

9. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Managers may be held at such time and place as shall be determined, from time to time, by a majority of the Managers, but at least one such meeting shall be held during each calendar quarter. Notice of regular meetings of the Board of Managers shall be given to each Manager, personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph, at least seven days prior to the day named for such meeting.

10. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Managers may be called by the president on three days notice to each Manager, given personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph, which notice shall state the time, place (as hereinabove provided) and purpose of the meeting. Special meetings of the Board of Managers shall be called by the President or Secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of two or more managers.

11. Waiver of Notice. Before or at any meeting of the Board of Managers, any Manager may, in writing, waive notice of such meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a Manager at any meeting of the Board shall be a waiver of notice by him of the time and place thereof. If all the Managers are present at any meeting of the Board, no notice shall be required and any business may be terminated at such meeting.

12. Board of Managers' Quorum. At all meetings of the Board of Managers, a majority of the Managers shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the acts of the majority of the Managers present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the acts of the Board of Managers. If, at any meeting of the Board of Managers, there be less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called may be transacted without further notice.

13. Fidelity Bonds. The Board of Managers may require that all officers and employees of the Association and the Managing Agent handling or responsible for Association funds shall furnish adequate fidelity bonds. The premiums on such bonds shall be a common expense.

ARTICLE V

FISCAL MANAGEMENT

The provision for fiscal management of the condominium units for and in behalf of all of the unit owners as set forth in the Condominium Declaration shall be supplemented by the following provisions:

1. Accounts. The funds and expenditures of the unit owners by and through the Association shall be credited and charged to accounts under the following classifications as shall be appropriate, all of which expenditures shall be common expenses:
 - (a) Current expense, which shall include all funds and expenditures within the year for which the funds are budgeted, including a reasonable allowance for contingencies and working funds, except expenditures chargeable to reserves or to additional improvements.
 - (b) Reserve for deferred maintenance, which shall include funds for maintenance items which occur less frequently than annually.
 - (c) Reserve for replacement, which shall include funds for repair or replacement required because of damage, wear or obsolescence.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

1. Designation. The officers of the Association shall be a President, a Vice-President and Secretary and a Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Board of Managers, and such assistant officers as the Board of Managers shall, from time to time, elect. Such officers need not be member of the Board of Managers, but each shall be owner of a condominium unit in this condominium project, or the Declarant(s) or their representative(s). The office of President and Treasurer may be held by the same person, and the office of Vice-President and Secretary may be held by the same person.
2. Election of Officers. The officers of the Association shall be elected annually by the Board of Managers at the organization meeting of each new Board and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board.
3. Removal of Officers. Upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Managers, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, and his successor elected at any regular meeting of the Board of Managers, or at any special meeting of the Board called for such purpose.
4. President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Association. He shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Board of Managers. He shall have all of the general powers and duties which are usually vested in the office of president of an association, including but not limited to the power to appoint committees from among the owners from time to time as he may in his discretion decide is appropriate to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the Association or as may be established by the Board or by the members of the Association at any regular or special meetings.
5. Vice-President. The Vice-President shall have all the powers and authority and perform all the functions and duties of the President, in the absence of the President, or his inability for any reason to exercise such powers and functions or perform such duties.

6. Secretary. The Secretary shall keep all the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Managers and the minutes of all meetings of the Association, he shall have charge of such books and papers as the Board of Managers may direct; and he shall, in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Secretary and as is provided in the Declaration and the By-Laws.

The Secretary shall compile and keep up to date at the principal office of the Association a complete list of members and their last known addresses as shown on the records of the Association. Such list shall also show opposite each member's name the number or other appropriate designation of the unit owned by such member, the undivided interest in the general common elements. Such list shall be open to inspection by members and other persons lawfully entitled to inspect the same at reasonable times during regular business hours.

7. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have responsibility for Association funds and shall be reasonable for keeping full and accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Association. He shall be responsible for the deposit of all monies and other valuable effects in the name, and to the credit, of the Association in such depositories as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Managers. In the event a Managing Agent has the responsibility of collecting and disbursing funds, the Treasurer shall review the accounts of the Managing Agent not less often than once each calendar quarter.

ARTICLE VII

INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS, MANAGERS AND MANAGING AGENT

1. Indemnification. The Association shall indemnify every manager, officer, Managing Agent, their respective successors, personal representatives and heirs, against all loss costs and expenses, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he may be made a party by reason of his being or having been a Manager, officer or Managing Agent of the Association, except as to matters as to which he shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for gross negligence or willful misconduct. In the event of a settlement, indemnification shall be provided only in connection with such matters covered by the settlement as to which the Association is advised by counsel that the person to be indemnified has not been guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his duty as such Manager, officer or Managing Agent in relation to the matter involved. The foregoing rights shall not be exclusive of other rights to which such Manager, officer or Managing Agent may be entitled. All liability, loss, damage, cost and expense incurred or suffered by the Association by reason or arising out of or in connection with the foregoing indemnification provisions shall be treated and handled by the Association as common expenses; provided, however, that nothing in this Article VII contained shall be deemed to obligate the Association to indemnify any member or owner of a condominium unit who is or has been a Manager or officer of the Association with respect to any duties or obligations assumed or liabilities incurred by him under and by virtue of the Condominium Declaration.

2. Other. Contracts or other commitments made by the Board of Managers, officers or the Managing Agent shall be made as agent for the unit owners, and they shall have no personal responsibility on any such contract or commitment (except as unit owners), and the liability of any unit owner on any such contract or commitment shall be limited to such proportionate share of the total liability thereof as the common interest of each unit owner bears to the aggregate common interest of all of the unit owners, except that any losses incurred because of an inability to collect such proportionate amount of the total liability owed by an owner shall be shared proportionately by the other owners.

ARTICLE VIII

AMENDMENTS TO BY-LAWS

1. Amendments to By-Laws. These By-Laws may be amended by the Association at a duly constituted meeting for such purpose.

ARTICLE IX

MORTGAGES

1. Notice to Association. An owner who mortgages his unit shall notify the Association through the Managing Agent, if any, or the Secretary of the Board of Managers, giving the name and address of his mortgagee. The Association shall maintain such information in a book entitled "Mortgagees of Units".

2. Notice of Unpaid Common Assessments. The Board of Managers, whenever so requested in writing by a mortgagee of a condominium unit, shall promptly report any then unpaid common assessments due from, or any other default by, the owner of a mortgaged unit.

3. Notice of Default. The Board of Managers, when giving notice to a unit owner of a default in paying common assessments or other defaults, shall send a copy of such notice to each holder of a mortgage covering such condominium unit whose name and address has therefore been furnished to the Board of Managers.

4. Examination of Books. Each unit owner and each mortgagee of a condominium unit shall be permitted to examine the books of account of the condominium at reasonable times on business days, but not more often than once each month.

ARTICLE X

EVIDENCE OF OWNERSHIP, REGISTRATION OF MAILING ADDRESS AND DESIGNATION OF VOTING REPRESENTATIVE

1. Proof of Ownership. Except for those owners who initially purchase a condominium unit from Declarant, any person on becoming an owner of a condominium unit shall furnish to the Managing Agent or Board of Managers a machine or a certified copy of the recorded instrument vesting that person with an interest or ownership in the condominium unit, which copy shall remain in the files of the Association.

2. Registration of Mailing Address. The owners or several owners of an individual condominium unit shall have one and the same registered mailing address to be used by the Association for mailing of monthly statements, notices, demands and all other communications, and such registered address shall be the only mailing address of a person or persons firm, corporation, partnership, association or other legal entity or any combination thereof to be used by the Association. Such registered address of a condominium unit owner or owners shall be furnished by such owners to the Managing Agent or Board of Managers within fifteen days after transfer of title, or after a change of address, and such registration shall be in written form and signed by all of the owners of the condominium unit or by such persons as are authorized by law to represent the interest of (all of) the owners thereon.

3. Designation of Voting Representative - Proxy. If a condominium unit is owned by one person, his right to vote shall be established by the record title thereon. If title to a condominium unit is held by more than one person or by a firm, corporation, partnership, association, or other legal entity, or any combination thereof, such owners shall execute a proxy appointing and authorizing one person or alternate persons to attend all annual and special meetings of members and thereat to cast whatever vote the owner himself might cast if he were personally present. Such proxy shall be effective and remain in force unless voluntarily revoked, amended or sooner terminated by operation of law; provided, however, that within thirty days after such revocation, amendment or termination, the owners shall reappoint and authorize one person or alternate persons to attend all annual and special meetings as provided by this section 3.

The requirements herein contained in this Article X shall be first met before an owner of a condominium unit shall be deemed in good standing and entitled to vote at any annual or special meeting of members.

ARTICLE XI

OBLIGATIONS OF THE OWNERS

1. Assessments. All owners shall be obligated to pay the monthly or quarterly assessments imposed by the Association to meet the common expenses. The assessments shall be made pro rata according to percentage interest in and to the general common elements subject to the provisions of paragraph 34(d) of the Declaration which are incorporated herein by this reference. Assessments shall be due in advance. A member shall be deemed to be in good standing and entitled to vote at any annual or at a special meeting of members, within the meaning of these By-Laws, if, and only if, he shall have fully paid all assessments made or levied against him and the condominium unit owned by him.

2. Notice of Lien or Suit. An owner shall give notice to the Association of every lien or encumbrances upon his condominium unit, other than for taxes and special assessments, and notice of every suit or other proceeding which may affect the title to his condominium unit, and such notice shall be given in writing within five days after the owner has knowledge thereof.

3. Maintenance and Repair.

(a) Every owner must perform promptly, at his own expense, all maintenance and repair work within his own unit which, if omitted, would affect the appearance of or the aesthetic integrity of or all of the condominium project.

(b) All the repairs of internal installations of the unit such as water, light, gas, power, sewage, telephone, sanitary installations, doors, windows, electrical fixtures and all other accessories, equipment and fixtures shall be at the owner's expense.

(c) An owner shall be obligated to reimburse the Association promptly upon receipt of its statement for any expenditures incurred by it in repairing or replacing any general or limited common elements damaged by his negligence or by the negligence of his tenant or agent or guests.

4. Mechanic's Lien. Each owner agrees to indemnify and to hold each of the other owners harmless from any and all claims of mechanic's lien filed against other apartment units and the appurtenant general common elements for labor, materials, services or other products incorporated in the owner's unit. In the event such a lien is filed and/or a suit for foreclosure of mechanic's lien is commenced; then within ten days thereafter such owner shall be required to deposit with the Association cash or negotiable securities equal to one and one-half of the amount of such claim plus interest for one year together with a sum equal to ten per cent of the amount of such claim but not less than One Hundred Fifty Dollars, which latter sum may be used by the Association for any costs or expenses incurred, including attorney's fees incurred for legal advice and counsel. Except as is otherwise provided, such sum or securities shall be held by the Association pending final adjudication or settlement of the claim or litigation. Disbursement of such funds or proceeds shall be made by the Association to insure payment of or on account of such final judgment or settlement. Any deficiency, including attorney's fees incurred by the Association, shall be paid forthwith by the subject owner, and his failure to so pay shall entitle the Association to make such payment, and the amount therefor shall be a debt of the owner and a lien against his condominium unit which may be foreclosed as is provided in paragraph 25 of the Condominium Declaration. All advances, payments, costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by the Association shall be forthwith reimbursed to it by such owner(s), and the owner shall be liable to the Association for the payment of interest at the rate of twelve per cent per annum on all such sums paid or incurred by the Association.

5. General.

(a) Each owner shall comply strictly with the provisions of the recorded Condominium Declaration and these By-Laws and amendments thereto.

(b) Each owner shall always endeavor to observe and promote the cooperative purposes for the accomplishment of which this condominium project was built.

6. Use of Units - Internal Changes.

(a) All units shall be utilized only for residential purposes as is provided in the Condominium Declaration.

(b) An owner shall not make structural modifications or alterations to his unit or installation located therein without the written approval of the Board of Managers. The Board of Managers shall be notified in writing of the intended modifications through the Managing Agent or, if no Managing Agent is employed, then, through the President of the Board of Managers. The Association shall have the obligation to answer an owner's request within fifteen days after such notice, and failure to do so within such time shall mean that there is no objection to the proposed modifications or alterations.

7. Use of General Common Elements and Limited Common Elements. Each owner may use the general common elements, the limited common elements, sidewalks, pathways, roads and streets and other common elements located within the entire condominium project in accordance with the purpose for which they were intended without hindering or encroaching upon the lawful rights of the other owners, and subject to the rules and regulations contained in these By-Laws and established by the Board of Managers as is provided in section 9 of this Article.

8. Right of Entry.

(a) An owner shall and does grant the right of entry to the Managing Agent or to any other person authorized by the Board of Managers in case of any emergency originating in or threatening his unit, whether the owner is present at the time or not.

(b) An owner shall permit other owners, or their representatives, to enter his unit for the purpose of performing installations, alterations or repairs to the mechanical, electrical or utility services which, if not performed, would affect the use of other units provided that the requests for entry are made in advance and that such entry is at a time convenient to the owner. In case of an emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate.

9. Rules and Regulations.

(a) The initial rules and regulations, which shall be effective until amended or supplemented by the Board of Managers, are annexed hereto and made a part hereof as Schedule A.

(b) The Board of Managers reserves the power to establish, make and enforce compliance with such additional house rules as may be necessary for the operation, use and occupancy of this condominium project with the right to amend same from time to time. Copies of such rules and regulations shall be furnished to each unit owner prior to the date when the same shall become effective.

10. Destruction and Obsolescence. Each owner, upon becoming an owner of a condominium unit, thereby grants his power of attorney in favor of the Association, irrevocably appointing the Association his attorney-in-fact to deal with the owner's condominium unit upon its damage, destruction or obsolescence, all as is provided in the Condominium Declaration.

ARTICLE XII

ABATEMENT AND ENJOINMENT OF VIOLATIONS BY UNIT OWNERS

1. Abatement and Enjoyment. The violations of any rule or regulation adopted by the Board of Managers, or the breach of any By-Law, or the breach of any provision of the Declaration, shall give the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent the right, in addition to any other rights set forth therein, (i) to enter the unit in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting unit owner, any person, structure, thing or condition that may exist therein contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions thereof, and the Board of Managers or Managing Agent shall not be deemed guilty in any manner of trespass, and to expel, remove and put out, using such force as may be necessary in so doing, without being liable to prosecution or in damages therefor; (ii) to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any breach.

ARTICLE XIII

COMMITTEES

1. Designation. The Board of Managers may, but shall not be required to, appoint an executive committee, and it may designate and appoint members to the standing committee.

2. Executive Committee. The executive committee shall consist of two persons who are members and who shall be appointed by the Board of Managers from the members of the Board. One member shall be the President. The executive committee shall supervise the affairs of the Association and shall regulate its internal economy, approve expenditures and commitments, act and carry out the established policies of the Association and report to the Managers at each meeting of the Board. The executive committee may hold regular meetings, monthly or as it may in its discretion determine. Special meetings may be called at any time by the chairman of the committee or by any of its members, either personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph, and a special meeting may be held by telephone.

3. Nominating Committee. Before each annual meeting, the Board of Managers may appoint a committee of three members who shall nominate candidates for the Board. The names of the candidates shall be submitted on or before thirty (30) days before the election. Members may submit names of candidates other than those submitted by the nominating committee at least sixty (60) days prior to the election. Unless such names are submitted, either by the nominating committee or by the members, no person shall be elected whose name is not so submitted unless no nominations are made, in which event the names of candidates shall be submitted at the election by the members.

4. Vacancies. A vacancy in any committee shall be filled by the President until the next meeting of the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE XIV

ASSOCIATION - NOT FOR PROFIT

1. Association - Not For Profit. This Association is not organized for profit. No member, member of the Board of Managers, officer or person from whom the Association may receive any property or funds shall receive or shall be lawfully entitled to receive any pecuniary profit from the operation thereof, and in no event shall any part of the funds or assets of the Association be paid as salary or compensation to, or distributed to, or inure to the benefit of any member of the Board of Managers, officer or member; provided, however, always (1) that reasonable compensation may be paid to any member, Manager or officer while acting as an agent or employee of the Association for services rendered in effecting one or more of the purposes of the Association, and (2) that any member, Manager or officer may, from time to time, be reimbursed for his actual and reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the administration of the affairs of the Association. Rent receipts received by the Managing Agent shall be deemed the property of the owner, and deposits to the Association bank account shall be deemed only as a convenience to owners.

ARTICLE XV

MORTGAGEES AS PROXIES

1. Mortgagees as Proxies. Condominium unit owners shall have the right to irrevocably constitute and appoint the beneficiary of a trust deed their true and lawful attorney to vote their unit membership in this Association at any and all meetings of the Association and to vest in such beneficiary or his nominee any and all rights, privileges and powers that they have as unit owners under the Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws of this Association or by virtue of the recorded Condominium Declaration. Such proxy shall become effective upon the filing of a notice by the beneficiary with the Secretary of the Association at such time or times as the beneficiary shall deem its security in jeopardy by reason of the failure, neglect or refusal of the Association, the Managing Agent or the unit owners to carry out their duties as set forth in the Condominium Declaration. A release of the beneficiary's deed of trust shall operate to revoke such proxy. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve condominium unit owners, as mortgagors, of their duties and obligations as condominium unit owners or to impose upon the beneficiary of the deed of trust the duties and obligations of a unit owner.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned initial Board of Managers have hereunto set their hands this ____ day of _____ A. D. 1973.

Board of Managers:

The undersigned Secretary of this Association does hereby certify that the above and foregoing By-Laws and rules and regulations were duly adopted by the Managers as the By-Laws and rules and regulations of said Association on this ____ day of _____, A.D. 1973.

SCHEDULE A

Rules and Regulations

1. Any common sidewalks, driveways, entrances, halls, stairways and passageways shall not be obstructed or used by any unit owner for any other purpose than ingress to and egress from the units.
2. Except as to the areas termed limited common elements, no article shall be placed on or in any of the general common elements except for those articles of personal property which are the common property of all of the unit owners.
3. Unit owners, members of their families, their guests, residents, tenants or lessees shall not use sidewalks, driveways, entrances, halls, stairways and passageways as a play area(s).

4. No vehicle belonging to or under the control of a unit owner or a member of the family or a guest, tenant, lessee or employee of a unit owner shall be parked in such manner as to impede or prevent ready access to any entrance to or exit from a building. Vehicles shall be parked within designated parking areas. Any traffic flow markings and signs regulating traffic on the premises shall be strictly observed.

5. No work of any kind shall be done upon the exterior building walls or upon the general or limited common elements by any unit owner. Such work is the responsibility of the Association.

6. No owner, resident or lessee shall install wiring for electrical or telephone installation or for any other purpose, nor shall any television or radio antennae, machines or air conditioning units be installed on the exterior of the project, including any part of the balcony, or that protrude through the walls or the roof of the condominium improvements except as may be expressly authorized by the Association.

7. Owners and occupants shall exercise reasonable care to avoid making or permitting to be made loud, disturbing or objectionable noises, and in using or playing or permitting to be used or played musical instruments, radios, phonographs, television sets, amplifiers and any other instruments or devices in such manner as may disturb or tend to disturb owners, tenants or occupants of other units, and the same shall not be played or permitted to be played between the hours of 11:30 P.M. and the following 8:00 A.M.

8. Disposition of garbage and trash shall be only by the use of garbage disposal units or by use of common trash and garbage facilities.

9. The balconies, if any, and terraces, decks or patios shall be used only for purposes intended and shall not be used for hanging garments or other articles or for cleaning rugs, household articles or other items. No rugs or other materials shall be dusted from windows, balconies, decks or patios by beating or shaking.

10. No cats, dogs or other animal or bird or reptile (hereinafter for brevity termed "animal") shall be kept, maintained or harbored in the development unless the same in each instance is expressly permitted in writing by the Managing Agent or, if there is no Managing Agent, then, by the Board of Managers. Where such written permission is granted, such permission is revocable if the animal becomes obnoxious to other owners, in which event the owner or person having control of the animal shall be given a written notice to correct the problem, or if not corrected, the owner, upon written notice, will be required to dispose of the animal. The written notices provided for herein shall be issued by the Managing Agent or, if there is no Managing Agent, then, by one or more of the members of the Board of Managers.

11. The Association assumes no liability for nor shall it be liable for any loss or damage to articles stored in any common or other storage area.

12. Any damage to the general common elements or common personal property caused by the owner or a child or children of a unit owner or their guests or the guests of a unit owner shall be repaired at the expense of that unit owner.

13. The Managing Agent or, if there is no Managing Agent, then, the Board of Managers shall retain a passkey to each unit. No owner shall alter any lock or install a new lock on any door leading into the unit without prior consent, and, if such consent is given, the owner shall provide a key for the Managing Agent's or the Board of Manager's use.

The foregoing Rules and Regulations are subject to amendment and to the promulgation of further regulations.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of this Corporation shall be Sherwood Condominium Association.

ARTICLE II

Duration

The term of existence of this corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE III

Purposes

The business, objects and purposes for which the corporation is formed are as follows:

1. To be and constitute the Association to which reference is made in the Condominium Declaration for Sherwood Condominiums and any supplements thereto (for brevity, hereinafter referred to as Declaration), to be recorded in the records of the Clerk and Recorder of El Paso County, Colorado, pursuant to C.R.S. (1963) 118-15-5 and Amendment thereto, relating to a condominium ownership project, and to perform all obligations and duties of the Association and to exercise all rights and powers of the Association.

2. To provide an entity for the furtherance of the interests of all of the owners, including the Declarant named in the Declaration, of condominium units in the Sherwood Condominium project, with the objectives of establishing and maintaining it as a prime condominium ownership project of the highest possible quality and value and enhancing and protecting its value, desirability and attractiveness.

ARTICLE IV

Powers

In furtherance of its purposes, the corporation shall have all of the powers conferred upon corporations not for profit by the statutes and common law of the State of Colorado in effect from time to time, including all of the powers necessary or desirable to perform the obligations and duties and exercise the rights and powers of the Association under the Declaration which will include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

1. To make and collect assessments against members of the Association for the purposes of payment of the common expenses (including the expenses incurred in exercising its powers or of performing its functions).

2. To manage, control, operate, maintain, repair, improve and enlarge the general common elements.

3. To enforce the terms, covenants, restrictions, conditions, uses, limitations and obligations set forth under the Declaration and By-Laws, and to make and enforce rules and regulations as provided therein.

4. To engage in activities which will actively foster, promote and advance the interests of all of the owners of condominium units, including the interests of the Declarant during its development of the project and its ownership of condominium units.

ARTICLE V

Memberships

1. This corporation shall be a membership corporation without certificates or shares of stock. There shall be one class of membership, and there shall be one membership in the corporation for each condominium unit, as defined in the Declaration and Supplements thereto. The owner or owners of a condominium unit shall hold and share the membership related to that condominium unit in the same proportionate interest and by the same type of tenancy in which the title to the condominium unit is held, provided always that there shall be only one membership per condominium unit. No person or entity other than an owner of a condominium unit may be a member of the corporation.

2. Each membership shall have the percentage vote as is set forth in the Declaration and any Supplements thereto on all matters in which members are entitled to vote.

3. A membership in the corporation and the share of a member in the assets of the corporation shall not be assigned, encumbered or transferred in any manner except as appurtenant to the transfer of title to the condominium unit to which the membership pertains; provided, however, that the rights of membership may be assigned to the holder of a mortgage, deed or trust or other security instrument on a condominium unit as further security for a loan secured by a lien on such condominium unit.

4. A transfer of membership shall occur automatically upon the transfer of title to the condominium unit to which the membership pertains; provided, however, that the By-Laws of the corporation may contain reasonable provisions and requirements with respect to recording such transfers on the books and records of the corporation.

5. Members shall have the right to purchase other condominium units and the memberships appurtenant thereto as provided in the Declaration.

6. The corporation may suspend the voting rights of a member for failure to comply with the rules or regulations of the corporation or with any other obligations of the owners of any condominium unit under the Declaration and By-Laws.

7. The By-Laws may contain provisions setting forth the rights, privileges, duties and responsibilities of the members.

ARTICLE VI

Board of Managers

1. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be conducted, managed and controlled by a Board of Managers. The Board of Managers shall consist of not less than three nor more than five members, the specific number to be set forth from time to time in the By-Laws of the corporation. Members of the Board of Managers need not be members of the corporation.

2. Members of the Board of Managers shall be elected at the annual meeting of the members in the manner determined by the By-Laws.

3. Managers may be removed and vacancies of the Board of Managers shall be filled in the manner to be provided by the By-Laws.

4. The names and addresses of the members of the first Board of Managers who shall serve until the first election of Managers and until their successors are duly elected and qualified, are as follows:

Any vacancies in the Board of Managers occurring before the first election of Managers shall be filled by the remaining Managers.

ARTICLE VII

Officers

The Board of Managers may appoint a President, one or more Vice Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer and such other officers as the Board believes will be in the best interest of the corporation. The officers shall have such duties as may be prescribed in the By-Laws of the corporation and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE VIII

Conveyances and Encumbrances

Corporate property may be conveyed or encumbered by authority of the Board of Managers or by such person or persons to whom such authority may be delegated by resolution of the Board. Conveyances or encumbrances shall be by an instrument executed by the President or a Vice President and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary, or executed by such other person or persons to whom such authority may be delegated by the Board.

ARTICLE IX

Initial Registered Office and Agent

The initial registered office of the corporation shall be
The initial registered agent at such office shall be

ARTICLE X

Amendments

Amendments to these Articles of Incorporation shall be adopted, if at all, in the manner set forth in the By-Laws; provided, however, that no amendment to these Articles of Incorporation shall be contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of the Declaration.

ARTICLE XI

Managing Agent Functions

The Association shall obtain and pay for the services of a person, persons or entity to administer and manage its affairs and be responsible for the operation, maintenance, repair and improving of the common elements and all of the exterior portions of the improvements and to keep the same in good, attractive and sanitary condition, order and repair; provided, however, that the Declarant may perform such services until the development of the condominium project has been fully completed and all of the condominium units sold. The cost of such services shall be borne by the members according to their percentage or fractional interest in the common elements as provided in the Declaration, supplements thereto and By-Laws, whether such services are directly rendered by the Declarant or delegated by Declarant to a person or entity.

ARTICLE XII

Incorporation

acting as incorporator under the Colorado Nonprofit Corporation Act, sign and acknowledge these Articles of Incorporation for such corporation.
